

RUN THE RACE

Phil. 3:12-14

A group of runners in various colored uniforms are in a starting crouch on a red running track. The lead runner is a man in a red and yellow singlet, looking forward with determination.An elderly woman with short grey hair is smiling and looking at a framed black and white photograph of a young child. She is holding the frame with both hands.A man wearing a backpack and shorts stands on a rocky mountain peak. He has his arms raised in a gesture of triumph or prayer against a clear blue sky.A close-up shot of a hand holding a small, vibrant green seedling with two leaves, growing out of a small amount of dark soil.

Jesus reminded Peter not to dwell on his past failures but to go forward (John 21)

A man in a light-colored t-shirt and dark pants is running on a track. In the background, there are orange traffic cones and a mountain range under a blue sky with clouds.A close-up of a small green seedling with two leaves growing out of a brown terracotta pot. The background is blurred.

Paul says that he is forgetting
those things
which are behind and reaching forward to get to heaven

Phil 3:13

Forget
your past
and run to win the race
