

Matthew 20:1-16

- 1 “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.
- 2 He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.
- 3 “About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing.
- 4 He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right

Matthew 20:1-16

- 5 So they went. “He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon and did the same thing.
- 6 About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’
- 7 “‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered.
- 8 “He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’
- 9 “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

Matthew 20:1-16

- 9 “The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius.
- 10 So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius.
- 11 When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner.
- 12 ‘These who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

Matthew 20:1-16

- 13 “But he answered one of them, ‘I am not being unfair to you, friend. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius?’
- 14 Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you.
- 15 Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’
- 16 “So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

The Kingdom Principles

The Kingdom Parable

The story is of a master who hired servants for vineyard work

The workers agreed to work for one denarius

The master hired more servants at several times during the day

And at the end of the day they were all paid equally
